Worship

- A return to in-person worship is planned for September 13.
- Reservations are required for in-person worship so that the worship space can be prepared.
- Call or email the church office for reservation information.
- Online worship will continue to be offered through the church's website and YouTube channel.

The Church Building

- The church building is closed at this time (except for in-person worship services).
- Indoor, in-person gatherings at the church are suspended.
- Small, outdoor, church-related in-person gatherings are allowed on church grounds with a reservation. Call or email the church office for reservations.

To Contact the Pastor or Staff

- The church phone is monitored, and staff members are available by email.

Offering

- Please continue to give to the church if you are able to do so.
- Please mail offering to the church or give online by visiting the "Give" page on this website.
